

You know that "post movie feeling",
the one you get after a really good film?
The feeling that you could do everything better,
if only you could remain in that state,
if you could keep it until the next day and further - for the rest of your life.

Zen Zebra want to grasp this unique chance of escape.
They want to make the dramatic gestures and breath taking images tangible and enduring.

The result is an enthralling, multi-faceted alternative,
now quiet and fragile, now irrepressible screaming passion.
Here you'll find intimate crackling in stadium-style arrangements,
where emotions are escalate and addictions collapse.

Zen Zebra write a ruthless, demasking accounting of themselves and with life in general. No flying of flags, no heroes, no happy ending
- just rage, despair and big explosions.

Short info

Brutality and intimacy have more than a few letters in common when ZEN ZEBRA bring them together.

Both can flow from the same pen,
and when they do it's the beginning of a musical roller coaster,
complete with goose bumps, closed eyes and big explosions!
